Dear Sir:

Mr. Belote was in to see me the other day and mentioned the fact that you had Dr. Malcolm Storer's manuscript on Naval Medals and that you were wondering about editing. Not having seen the manuscript I cannot say whether it would add any new material to that already published by the Marquis of Milford-Haven. As for checking and editing the manuscript I am at a loss on how to advise you. I know of no one in New York either willing or competent to do this work. I should think, however, that some retired naval officer familiar more or less with general naval history might be the person to do this.

Very truly yours,

H.W.J.G
